ABOUT ME

Hello, I'm Inga Nkurunziza. While I may have entered the design field later in life, my relentless drive to exceed my limits has been with me since day one. Basketball, music, and films captivate my interests, but my true passion lies in the realm of creativity. When it comes to business matters, actions speak louder than words—I prefer to let my work do the talking. Ultimately, my goal is simple: to bring ideas to life through creation.
